☞ Parent Advocacy 101 ☞

Sunday, April 29, 2012, 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Location: Ben and Esther Rosenbloom JCC
3506 Gwynnbrook Avenue, Owings Mills, MD 21117

This workshop is designed to give parents an idea of various strategies they can use during IEP meetings where effective advocacy is important to ensure their child receives a Free, Appropriate, Public Education (FAPE). Participants will gain knowledge and understanding about special education law. The workshop will provide practical tips for ensuring clear communication and collaboration between families and schools.

Each participant will receive a binder designed to help you keep track of all the relevant information regarding your child’s Individualized Education Program (IEP).

Instructors: Marjorie Shulbank & Kathleen Waxman
Maryland State Department of Education
Division of Special Education/Early Intervention
